Payment Information

The Medical Research Archives charges the following fees to cover the costs associated with peer-review and publication. The following fee information applies to all article types, including case reports and invited reviews. As the MRA is a newer journal it is unfortunately not possible to waive the publication costs for all invited submissions.

The Editorial Board may reduce or waive the publication fee of a submission on a case by case basis.

- Submission fee ($100) - due upon submission of the article, used to cover the costs for the peer-review process.
